

#FMF protagonists invites you to a book launch.

Panel discussion will include students, academics and community activists

SOWETO

Morris Isaacson High School Hall

Mphuthi St, Central Jabavu, Soweto

Saturday 24 June , 2017

13h00 – 15h00

WITS University

Senate Room (Solomon Mahlangu House)

Thursday 27 July, 2017

17h00 – 19h00

Copies of the book will be available.

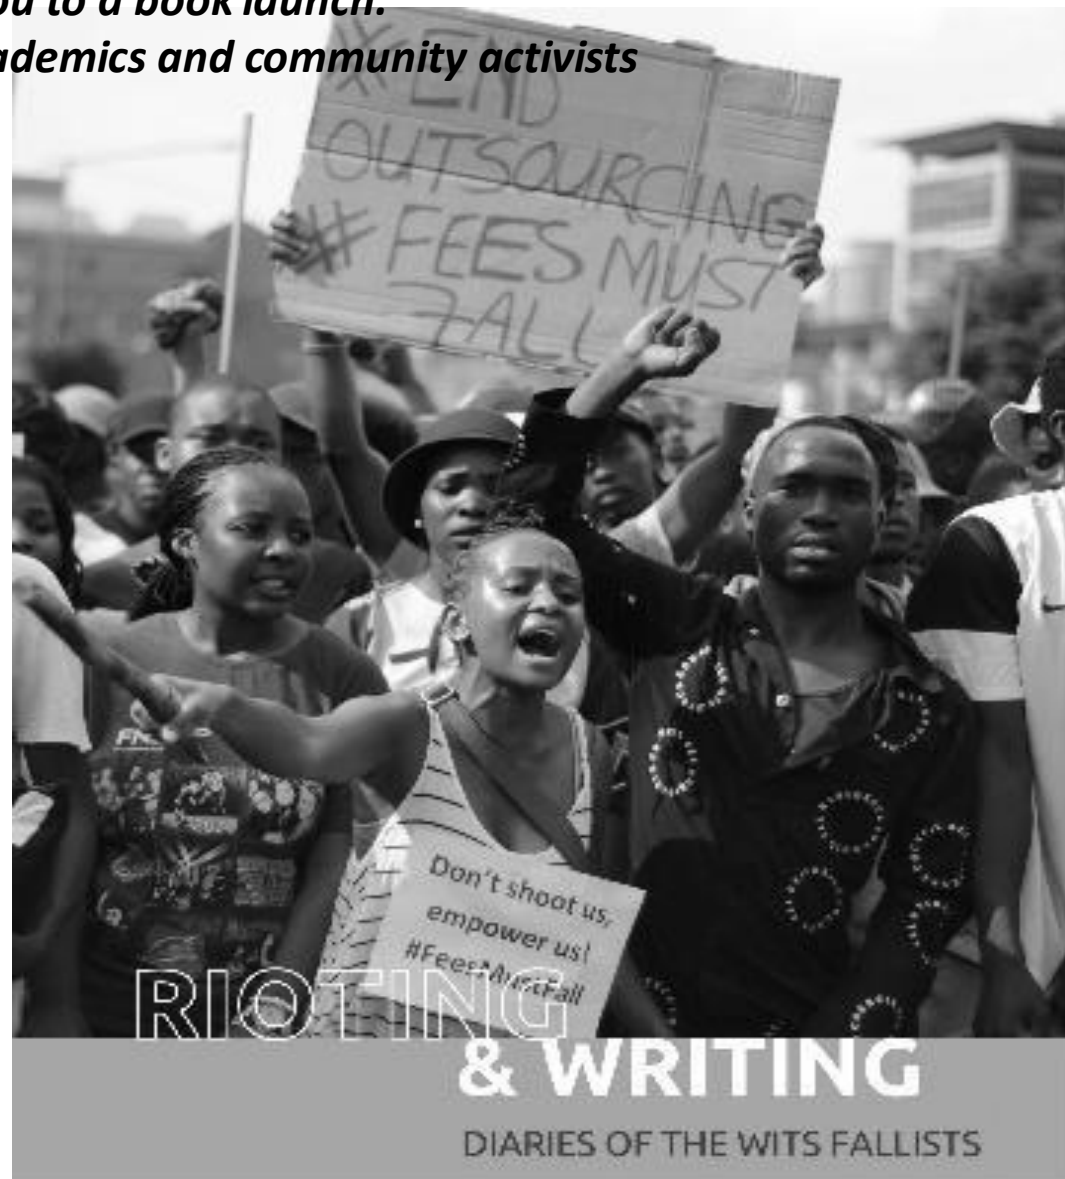

RSVP SWOP Institute:

marilyn.scheepers@wits.ac.za

All are welcome!

The book provides a critical analysis of the #FMF movement drawing from its key pillars of Pan Africanism, intersectionality, Black radical feminism and student-worker solidarity.

Contributors: Canham, Chinguno, Dlakavu, Jacobs, Kgoroba, Leopeng, Mabasa, Mabaso, Mashibini, Masilela, Maubane, Moloby, Molo, Moyo, Mthombeni, Ndlovu, Radebe, Sambo & Seabe.

Society, Work & Development Institute
'the making and unmaking of social order'

